

HEDGE END BOWLING CLUB

The General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) Policy

Policy

Hedge End Bowling Club's General Data Protection (GDPR) Policy sets out our commitment to protecting personal data and how we implement that commitment with regards to the collection and use of personal data. Hedge End Bowling Club is committed to ensuring that we comply with the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) principles, as listed below:

- Meet our legal obligations as laid down by the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).
- Ensure that data is collected and used fairly and lawfully.
- Process personal data only in order to meet our operational needs or fulfil legal requirements.
- Take steps to ensure that personal data is up to date and accurate.
- Establish appropriate retention periods for personal data.
- Provide members with access to their personal information upon request.
- Abide by Article 15, granting members the right to have their personal information erased.
- Provide adequate security measures to protect personal data.
- Ensure Computer Security Software is current.
- Ensure that a nominated member is responsible for data protection compliance and provides a point of contact for all data protection issues.
- Ensure that all members are made aware of good practice in data protection.
- Provide adequate training for all members responsible for personal data.
- Ensure that queries about data protection, internal and external to the Club, are dealt with effectively and promptly.
- Regularly review data protection procedures and guidelines within the Club.
- Ensure that everyone handling personal data knows where to find further guidance

Data Protection

Personal Data is any data which may be used to identify, contact or locate a single person. The club holds for all members their name, address, post code, home and, where known, mobile phone number, as well as email addresses. This information is held on personal computers by those club officials with the need to process such information, principally the Treasurer and Secretaries. Names and phone numbers are made available to all members in the club house book provided and on the password protected website. Information on date of birth is held, only for Junior members. Where members have declared a disability, this information is held in hard copy form. No financial information (e.g. Bank details) is held by the club although, where members have provided details of their Bank account, for the purposes of receiving BACS payments, that information is held within the Bank's own system accessible only by authorised Officers

Data Sharing

The only personal information shared is that relevant information required by other Bowling Associations organisations to which it is affiliated and needed by those Associations in order that they can inform members of, for example, selection for Association matches, participation in competitions

Data Erasure

Anyone who has their personal data held by the Club has the right to access, view and erase this data. A subject Access Request (Article 15) grants every citizen the right to a copy of all their personal data held by the Club. Hedge End Bowling Club will provide this information on paper or an electronically transportable format usable by the Candidate requesting the information. The Right to be Forgotten (Article 16 &17) entitles Candidates to have this data erased. The Club understands that failure to fulfil this entitlement will be a violation of GDPR and subject to penalties.

Data Breaches

In the event of a data breach posing any kind of threat to members personal information, the Club will inform the affected individuals within 72 hours.